Our Lenten Environment The Fourth Sunday of Lent - Rejoice!

Today is known as Laetare Sunday, a day that marks the half-way point of Lent and that celebrates our joy in being that much closer to the Resurrection of Christ, the Day of our Salvation. In the gospel today, the theme of reconciliation continues. Luke tells us that our Loving Father is always ready to forgive the truly repentant. God constantly remakes us, reverses our distortions, forgives us, and restores our original likeness. The father in Luke's Gospel, joyous in the returning errant son, bestows upon him the robe and the ring - a signal that the boy will not return as a servant but as a son. We are sons and daughters of a loving, merciful God. In the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we are provided with the opportunity to remake and restore ourselves to God's Grace. Make the reception of this sacrament part of your Lenten journey to the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit.

The Second Collection this weekend is the monthly collection.

Prayer for Healing will meet on 3/16 at 9:30am in Fr. Crawford Hall.

THE HEART OF CONVERSION

Today's scriptures bring us to the heart of the meaning of the Christian journey of conversion. Saint Paul sums it up beautifully: "Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away" (2 Corinthians 5:17). The Gospel passage, the parable of the prodigal son, shows us just what this new creation is like. It is all about reconciliation. Just as God removes the yoke of slavery from the shoulders of the Israelites—see today's first reading—so, too, does the father in the Gospel remove the yoke of guilt and shame from the shoulders of his wayward son. That son first needed to turn away from his sin and seek out and ask forgiveness of his father. That is precisely what we have been doing during this season of repentance. We can only begin to imagine the kind of reconciliation feast that awaits us when we are embraced by our forgiving God.

SAINT JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

March 19

Joseph, someone once joked, was indeed the perfect husband: the only major character in Jesus' story who never utters a word! But the Gospel recounts and the liturgy celebrates his silent witness of faith-filled deeds: "With a husband's love he cherished Mary, the Virgin Mother of God; with fatherly care he watched over Jesus" (Preface of Saint Joseph, Sacramentary). Catholic devotion, therefore, hails him as patron-protector of the universal Church. Some cultures set a festive "Saint Joseph's Table," welcoming the poor and strangers to feast with family and friends. Tradition keeps today as the anniversary of his death, which we presume was peaceful, with Jesus and Mary present. Thus, Catholics invoke Joseph as "patron of a happy death." Descended from David's house, which God finished "building" through Joseph's provision of a home for Mary and Jesus, he was, fittingly, a carpenter by trade; thus, patron of workers. Spring, nature's rebirth, begins between his feast and Annunciation (March 25), appropriately, since Joseph's silent obedience and Mary's "Let it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38) usher in humanity's spiritual rebirth.

A simple judge of my character is how I treat a person who can do absolutely nothing for me.
