On Sat., May 1st, 44 beautiful children received the Lord in the Eucharist for the first time. It was truly a beautiful day in the lives of our children and their families. We would like to thank each family for your participation and witness to the Sacred Sacrament of First Holy Communion. May the Eucharist always be at the center of your family life.

The children prepared very well for this moment. We invite our parishioners to view the prayer center in the Narthex. Each child came to the quiet on their retreat day and pondered the prayer starter "I welcome Jesus into my heart when..." Each child reflects the true simplicity and beauty of the relationship with Jesus that children have. May we, as a community grow from the prayers of the children. Each child also created a Blessing Cup on their retreat as a remembrance of their Communion.

"The Catechist strives to be an instrument of the Lord's presence" We are grateful to all catechists who served our parish in the ministry of education. We especially ask God's blessings on those who helped to prepare the children for this day. We are most grateful to all who dedicated their time and shared their talents to make this day meaningful and special.

The theme of "Let the Little Children Come to Me..." is carried through in the banner present in the Sanctuary and in the prayers of the children.

Our sincere gratitude to our Pastor, Fr. James Moran for his guidance and support for our children, parents and catechists throughout this year.

We especially thank our Sacristan, Toni Munoz for preparing the vessels and vestments for our First Communion Liturgy. Our Sexton, Phil Pasternak for preparing the Fr. Crawford Hall and the Narthex. Thank you to Teri Aiudi, Faith Formation Secretary, for preparing the many clerical communications necessary to organize this day.

Gratitude sings out to Theodora Niver and the beautiful voices of the Cantors and sounds of the musicians.

Sincere thanks to Noranne Wamester, Pastoral Minister, whose leadership and spiritual direction has made this time such a beautiful witness of Christ's enduring love for His children.

A Family Perspective....The gospel challenges us to see DIFFERENCES in one another in anew way not as something we need to change or tolerate, but to embrace. In a Christian family we are accepted and cherished for who we are and who we can be. This is how all “will know you are my disciples and God is glorified.”

Stewardship Message....In today’s Gospel, Jesus gives His disciples — and us — a new commandment: “love one another.” Good stewards who spend their time and talents in service to others are well on their way to fulfilling this commandment.

TRANSFORMATION

When we clean, repair, or otherwise restore things in our possession, we often say “good as new” or “just like new.” This, according to the book of Revelation, is what happens to anything that is filled with the glory of Christ. When scripture uses the word “new” it doesn’t merely mean “a different one, a replacement” (as our advertisements do), but it carries the sense of something being transformed so fully and completely that it is now almost unrecognizable. Our world is filled with tears, death, pain, thirst, darkness; but the new world—the new heavens and new earth brought about by Christ’s resurrection—is filled with joy, everlasting life, glory, living water, and light. As Paul noted in his second letter to the church at Corinth, if we are in Christ, then we are a new creation. And disciples who are a new creation, who live in the new heaven and earth brought about by Christ, are also daily practitioners of a new commandment: to love one another with that transforming, re-new-ing love that Christ bestowed on us.

SAINTS PHILIP AND JAMES, APOSTLES May 3

Call Philip the gospel’s “Answer Man.” “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Nathaniel asked Philip, who had proclaimed Jesus “the one about whom Moses wrote in the law, and also the prophets” (John 1:45). Jesus asked Philip, “Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?” (John 6:5). Greeks brought Philip their request: “We would like to see Jesus” (John 12:21). Philip’s answer to each question: bring people to Jesus! At the Last Supper, finally, Philip had a request of his own: “Show us the Father!” (John 14:8). Jesus had three last questions for Philip: “You still don’t know me? How can you ask that? Don’t you believe?” And an answer: “I am in the Father and the Father is in me” (John 14:10). Today’s James is not John’s brother, Zebedee’s son, but, tradition says, author of the New Testament Letter of James, who died praying for his murderers in Jesus’ words: “Forgive them, for they know not what they do.” Few historical details for either saint, but lessons aplenty: Bring every question we have and everybody we meet to Jesus; be, as James’ letter challenges, “doers of the word and not hearers only” (James 1:22).
