Message from The Archdiocese of Hartford.....On April 30, 2009, and subsequently on September 8, 2009, you were asked by Archbishop Mansell to implement special guidelines in the face of the H1N1 flu epidemic. The Connecticut Department of Public Health has recently informed us that there is now little or no flu activity in the State of Connecticut. Therefore, we are withdrawing those special guidelines and ask that you resume normal practices. You may return to the traditional way of giving the sign of peace. Thank you for cooperating.

A Family Perspective.....In many organizations the truth is hard to find, but in family life we are told the truth whether we want to hear it or not. Truth must be tempered with sensitivity kindness. We are challenged to disagree agreeably, correct constructively and fight fairly.

Stewardship Message....Today's psalm reminds us that we have been crowned with glory and honor and given rule over the works of God's hands. But we must be good stewards, for the Lord will surely hold us accountable for the use of those gifts!

PRAISE TO THE CREATOR

The first reading, from Proverbs, is a beautiful doxology of the glory of Christ, who existed before all of creation. Christ is the Wisdom of God spoken of in the verse: “from of old I was poured forth, / at the first, before the earth” (Proverbs 8:23). Christ is described in terms of preexistence, of knowledge and wisdom of God, as the Child of God in whom the Creator delights, playing on the earth and delighting in the human race. Psalm 8 continues this hymn of praise to the Creator, enumerating all the wonders of creation, and marveling at the wonderful truth that God has put humanity at the forefront of it all, making us a little less than angels, “crowned with glory and honor” (Psalm 8:6).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Before anything was created, the wisdom of God was brought forth (Proverbs 8:22-31).

Psalm — O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth! (Psalm 8).

Second Reading — God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us (Romans 5:1-5).

Gospel — Everything that the Father has is mine; the Spirit will take from what is mine and declare it to you (John 16:12-15).
