honor all mothers,
but most especially ours,
on this Mother's Day...

We will pray for her, pay tribute to her, spend time with her, or reflect on her life in heaven. Whether she was a birth mother, an adoptive mother, grandmother, aunt, cousin, or friend to us, this is the day we call to mind the gifts she has or had, that made her a woman who shared “unconditional love” as all mothers do. Wishing all moms a Blessed and Peace

Thank you to Maura Buyak and Anne Camilliere for facilitating such a beautiful First Communion Celebration last Saturday.

Thank you for Homefront Day.....On May 5th, about 40 parishioners from The Church of the Incarnation, Sacred heart, and Corpus Christi came together to participate in HomeFront Day. HomeFront, Inc. sponsors this project, where parishioners from all over the state participate to repair and fix up the home of a needy family. This year, we worked on a house in Glastonbury for a family of 10, to apply a new roof, paint several rooms, do carpentry and tile repairs, provide much needed electrical work, and other tasks. It was a huge undertaking, but thanks to the many wonderful, hard working volunteers from all 3 parishes, the job got done. Many thanks to those who provided the food and drinks for all of the volunteers. Special thanks to Gerry Gingras and Steve Coates who coordinated this project, to Sonny Senatro who assisted them, and to everyone who helped in any way. Your time and talents are very much appreciated for this very worthwhile project. God Bless you all!

THE PRESENCE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

We have a unique episode in the Acts of the Apostles today. A whole roomful of people are baptized with the Holy Spirit before they are baptized with water! The verb used—"the Holy Spirit 'fell' on them" (Acts 10:44)—is characteristic of the way the Spirit works throughout the book of Acts: powerful and surprising. Though this "baptism" is not the normative way the New Testament describes baptism, it is still a good reminder today that the Holy Spirit is not controlled by whether or not we pour water, but rather that our sacramental signs reveal the presence of the Spirit at work among us. And we have a double reinforcement of how this work is accomplished from a Letter and a Gospel bearing John's name. It is love, self-sacrificing and self-giving love, that manifests the Spirit of Jesus in our midst. It is love that is the greatest of commandments. The Spirit is manifested equally through those who live in that love.

TODAY'S READINGS

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Just as the origins of Lent have to do with accompanying people in the final stages of preparation for baptism at Eastertime, so does the structure of the Easter season help the newly received Catholics take root in the community. This is the season of "mystagogy," which means "reflection on the mysteries." This means that new Catholics are remembering the sacraments by which they become one with us, and are sorting out the implications for their everyday life. They can understand the excitement of Cornelius and his family in the first reading, filled with the Holy Spirit, and so eager to begin their new life that they overwhelm St. Peter. The second reading and the Gospel today likewise help our new brothers and sisters explore their new life as an experience of God's tender love.

Long ago, our tradition named these newly baptized adults and children the "neophytes," from Greek words meaning "newly planted." Newly planted in the garden of faith, they look to us to provide the fertile soil in which their new life can take root and grow. You can help. If you have "neophytes" in your parish, a card or note of welcome, or warm words of congratulation, are still timely. It's Easter!
